

We do not want calls to start happening again. They have slowed down but stopping completely would help. When a call arrives and people ask for contributions or are selling items, we ask where did you get this # from. Because we would rather not be bothered by these people. That is why we signed "DO NOT CALL LIST" to start with.

thank you